Foundations: THE SIXTH BLESSING

Matthew 5:8

Can you imagine what it's like to actually see _____?!!
Jesus said, "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God."

"If only I knew where to find Him; if only I could go to His dwelling."
(Job 23:3) Do we have this _____ to _____?
Is this something we _____?

Could it be that when our _____ are _____, we can do something as simple as _____ and _____ the _____ and be "wowed" by the _____ of _____? Without a pure heart, though, we find those same words _____.

Peter, after that great catch of fish, falls to his knees and says, "_____ from me, Lord; I am a _____!" (Lk. 5:8) _____ begged God to _____: "Here I am. Send me!" (Is.6:8) We want to see God as long as it doesn't _____ us much—as in _____ us and _____ us and _____ us out to _____.

Many were ready to _____ what Jesus _____, but they weren't willing to _____ what Jesus _____. They didn't really want to _____. Their hearts were too _____.
"Blessed are the PURE in heart, for THEY will see God."

Proverbs 4:23--"Above all else, _____ your _____, for it is the wellspring of life." Paul Baloche--"Open the _____ of my _____, Lord, I want to _____..."

The condition of our hearts _____ everything we see—what we are _____ to see, even what we _____ to see.
For now, if we _____, it has to be with the _____.

All our thoughts and _____, our will and our _____, our prejudices and our _____, our faith and our _____—converge in that convoluted place deep inside of us that the Bible calls "_____."

If you think of "_____ " as meaning " _____," then we have to conclude there's _____ of that happening!

William Barclay translated the sixth beatitude like this: "Blessed is the man whose _____ are entirely _____, for that man shall _____." Purity of heart is about our _____, our priorities, our _____. It's about giving God _____ in our lives and trying to see all _____ of life through _____.

What if we all shared a clear focus on _____ what God wants us to _____ and _____ what God wants us to _____—if we were truly that "pure in heart," what would we _____? Would we see _____ of _____? Would others see more of God... _____?
