Foundations: THE SEVENTH BLESSING

Matthew 5:9

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called the children of God (Matthew 5:9). To reconcile is to "_____." Jesus says that those who _____ are the _____. So... _____ are you?

The Bible tells us that Jesus looked _____. He lived among us as the exact _____—the _____--of the Heavenly Father.

How is it that people like you and me can _____ our Heavenly Father for others to take note of the _____? Jesus tells us it's when we are "_____."

Jesus came to _____ peace, His message was _____ peace, He died on the cross to _____ our peace. At His birth, the angels announced, "_____, good will to men." Jesus forgave sinners and said to them, "_____." He promised "Peace I _____ . My peace I give to you..." He greeted his followers: "_____ be unto you." In Romans 10:15, the message of Jesus is called the "_____, accepting it brings "the peace of God that _____ all _____." (Philippians 4:7)

Look in the _____ of the children of God and you'll find _____. Look at what they are _____ and you'll find them _____. If you're seeing these peacemakers with _____, you'll also be able see their _____ the Heavenly Father.

1. PEACEMAKERS _____ THE HEAVENLY FATHER.

Troublemakers are gifted at _____ relationships and creating _____. To do this, they must always _____ everyone else that's being affected.

Trouble arises from people _____ others instead of _____ them?

There's an old proverb that says: "Whoever gossips _____ will also gossip _____."

2. PEACEMAKERS _____ THEIR HEAVENLY FATHER.

SO _____!

We cannot be peacemakers until first we are _____ our Lord, and people begin to notice _____ we are.

Peacemaking is _____. It takes _____. It's done in love, but it is _____ and even _____ when this is what's required.

You'll never be any more _____, you'll never _____ your Heavenly Father more closely than when you're _____ the _____ and _____ a wall of division!

We can be troublemakers and barrier builders, or we can be peacemakers who _____ that divide—but there's only one way to be a child of God: _____ peace and _____ peace.
