

Josh Hunt, a native of Virginia, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology and Religion from Carson-Newman College and a Master of Divinity Degree in Pastoral Care and Counseling from Gardner-Webb University. Josh is called to Anderson First Baptist as Associate Pastor after serving as Pastor of Ross Grove Baptist Church in North Carolina for nine years. His passion is to teach, nurture God-given gifts, and equip other Christians to live out their ministries to make a positive impact in the world. Josh is husband to Sacha, an elementary school teacher in Anderson District V, and father to Jude, who was born in 2010.